STIMULUS

FashionForward is an Australian luxury clothing retailer with retail stores in each state and an online shop. It wants to expand retail stores globally using its current overseas suppliers in China, France and Italy. Recent media reports state that Australians throw away an average of 23 kilograms of clothing to landfill each year. As a result, FashionForward is facing challenges related to environmental sustainability.

9. 25 Barker Trial 2024

20 marks

Management of Harmony Co has hired you as a consultant to write a report addressing:

- Explain how human resources management is interdependent with marketing.
- Demonstrate why monitoring and controlling should be used to manage their marketing processes.
- Recommend ONE appropriate marketing strategy to address the business' problems.

STIMULUS

Harmony Co is a well-known Australian company specialising in eco-friendly skincare and vitamin supplement products. The company has built a loyal customer base by emphasising natural ingredients and operates 18 stores with a team of 200 employees across product development, retail and customer service. Harmony Co had seen steady sales growth over the past five years, but recent quarters have shown a 15% decline in revenue. They hold a 5% share in the eco-friendly product segment but are concerned about competition from new entrants and established brands. The answer must be presented in the form of a business report.

Icecreams R Us exclusively delivers ice-cream to homes in Newcastle. To increase market share, they are negotiating with a major service station chain, Eucafuels Ltd, to sell their brand of ice-cream throughout NSW. Before they agree to sell the ice-cream, Eucafuels Ltd have a number of concerns over the ability of Icecreams R Us to:

- deliver ice-cream to their outlets in NSW in a timely manner
- create an awareness that the ice-cream will be sold at Eucafuels Ltd outlets
- produce an increased volume of ice-cream while maintaining a quality product.

To address these concerns, you have been hired as a consultant by Icecreams R Us to write a report to their directors. In your report:

- describe TWO physical distribution issues that the business needs to consider in the delivery of their product
- justify ONE promotional strategy the business could use
- recommend possible changes the business could make to their operations processes to address the volume and quality concerns of Eucafuels Ltd.
